

Global Diversity and Inclusion Benchmarks

The GDIB Newsletter

For: Expert Panelists, Users and Others Interested in the GDIB

Editor: GDIB Co-author Julie O'Mara

Issue: March 3, 2015

The GDIB—Global Diversity and Inclusion Benchmarks: Standards for Organizations Around the World—helps organizations of all sizes around the world, in a variety of sectors, using a variety of approaches to D&I work, achieve high-quality D&I outcomes. First published in 2006, the 2014 edition is authored by Julie O'Mara and Alan Richter, Ph.D., and 80 Expert Panelists. It is sponsored by The Diversity Collegium, a nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing the field of diversity and inclusion through think tank dialogues, symposia, research, and publications. The GDIB is free of charge and may be downloaded at www.diversitycollegium.org Check regularly for more User Tools.

Please pass this newsletter along to others. We have a goal to increase the visibility of the GDIB.
Send us potential reader contact information and we will add them. Thank you.

USING THE GDIB IN EDUCATION – THE CENTENNIAL COLLEGE CERTIFICATE IN LEADERSHIP AND INCLUSION

In Canada CCDI is offering the Certificate in Leadership and Inclusion— a unique fully online leadership development program offered in partnership between the Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion and Centennial College. The CCDI is a national Canadian charity that supports people working to create more inclusive workplaces and also offers diversity, inclusion, and anti-bullying programs in Canadian high schools. Centennial College in Ontario has a strong focus on global citizenship, equity and inclusion. Every student in a degree or diploma program is required to take a course on global citizenship and equity in order to graduate. The Certificate in Leadership and Inclusion is delivered fully online and has participants from across the country who work in multiple sectors, including private sector companies, government, education, healthcare, and non-profit organizations. This new program has just completed the first cohort and the final assignment of the course required students to use the GDIB to analyze two Canadian organizations of their choice. Some students chose to analyze the organization they work for in comparison to another. Many of the students were very creative in how they applied the GDIB, some used the percentage levels, and some quantified the items on the GDIB as a points system. Feedback from students was that it was a very enlightening exercise to have a rigorous system of globally accepted benchmarks to frame their analysis of the organizations. Many students commented that it provided a much more holistic way to understand the diversity and inclusion initiatives of the organizations they examined. For more information about the Centennial Certificate in Leadership and Inclusion, please see this link: <http://www.cidi-icdi.ca/what-we-do/education/centennial/>

EP EDDIE MOORE, JR. QUOTED IN THE NY TIMES

He was mentioned in a Sunday, February 20, 2015 article by Kyle Spencer: “At New York Private Schools, Challenging White Privilege From the Inside.” Go to: (if the link doesn’t work just search Internet for Eddie Moore, Jr. New York Times): http://www.nytimes.com/2015/02/22/nyregion/at-new-york-private-schools-challenging-white-privilege-from-the-inside.html?_r=0 The article will give you good information about how white privilege is being approached in the schools and some of that can be used for adult learning as well. See information below in conference section on the White Privilege Conference that Eddie founded.

NEWS, REQUESTS, AND IDEAS FROM JULIE, ALAN, AND THE DIVERSITY COLLEGIUM

A PUSH TO INCREASE THE SHARING OF BEST PRACTICES IN THIS NEWSLETTER

We know that it takes time to share Precious time of which we have so little. And we wish we could come up with an incentive to encourage you to share just a short (150 to 200 word) description on one thing your organization or client is doing that helps achieve a GDIB benchmark at the 75 or 100 percent level ... or even the 50 percent level. Here’s one reason. In GDIB Category 10: Community, Government Relations, and Social Responsibility, one of the benchmarks at the 100 percent level is: The organization provides thought-leadership on D&I and shares its success in publications and presentations. So, you see, sharing the info is a best practice!

JOB POSTINGS

We're trying a new feature in this newsletter – Job Postings. If any reader has a job you want to post, please send to Julie. Please make it as short as possible. The newsletter has a global audience. Most readers are in the D&I profession.

No postings for this newsletter.

PLEASE DONATE TO DIVERSITY COLLEGIUM FOR GDIB

If you can, please contribute to funding the GDIB. And if your organization or your client organizations are able to give grants, let us know. We have so many ideas for research projects and user tools — and thank you to all of you who keep sending us ideas. We continue to get amazing positive feedback and thank yous for doing the GDIB. It has now grown to more than Alan and I can fund by ourselves. The Diversity Collegium is engaged and soon we'll be doing some specific fundraising, but we could use some general help now. Let us know if you personally or your organization can contribute and we'll facilitate the process. We'll soon have a donation button on www.diversitycollegium.org.

OFFERING SUPPORT

If you want to use the GDIB in conference presentations, blogs, articles, chapters and so forth, we will support you, if we can, by providing slides, handouts, and ideas.
